VII. AMENDMENTS TO THE PLEADINGS

A. Plaintiff

1. Plaintiff amended the Complaint on February 15, 2023. (Dkt. 143).
2. Plaintiff does not contemplate any further amendments to its pleadings concerning the claims to be tried beginning on March 23, 2023.

B. Defendants

1. Defendants filed an Answer to the Amended Complaint on March 1, 2023.
2. Both parties do not contemplate any further amendments, but reserve the right to amend their pleadings to conform to the evidence adduced at trial pursuant to Court of Chancery Rule 15(d).

VIII. EXHIBIT LIST

1. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Order Governing Case Schedule (Dkt. 83), the parties have met and conferred in good faith to create a joint exhibit list (the “Joint Exhibit List”), which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

2. The Joint Exhibit List includes all exhibits expected to be proffered by any party in its case in chief. The Joint Exhibit List need not include documents used solely for impeachment purposes. The presence of a document on the Joint Exhibit List as proffered by one party does not waive that party’s right to object to the introduction of that document by the other party or to argue that any exhibit may be admitted for a limited purpose only and/or to argue as to the weight or significance of such exhibit. The failure to designate an objection to any trial exhibit in the Joint Exhibit List shall not operate as a waiver of the party’s right to raise such an objection either at trial or in the parties’ pre-trial or post-trial briefs. Exhibits offered live at trial or cited in the parties’ post-trial briefs shall be deemed admitted into evidence unless subject to an objection sustained by the Court.

3. The Joint Exhibit List identifies in chronological order each exhibit by date and Bates number, provides a brief description of the document, and lists the occasions (if any) on which the document was marked as a deposition exhibit. The Joint Exhibit List identifies any objections that any party has to the exhibit. The merits of any objections noted on the Joint Exhibit List, unless resolved at trial, will be addressed post-trial or at such other time as the parties agree, or as ordered by the Court. The Parties shall provide the Court with a copy of the Joint Exhibit List at the start of trial.

4. The Parties may supplement the Joint Exhibit List at any time before the conclusion of trial, with each side reserving its right to object to any such supplemental exhibits. The party supplementing the Joint Exhibit List shall simultaneously provide to the other party copies of the exhibit or exhibits to be added to the Joint Exhibit List. To the extent possible, the Joint Exhibit List does not contain duplicative exhibits.

5. The failure to include on the Joint Exhibit List an exhibit used solely for cross-examination shall not be a basis for objecting to the exhibit if the questioning counsel in good faith did not anticipate the need for the use of the exhibit.

6. The parties reserve the right to use the exhibits designated by any party, to use any documents of which the Court takes judicial notice, and to use additional exhibits at trial in response to testimony or other evidence offered by the other side as rebuttal evidence.

7. Demonstrative exhibits do not appear on the Joint Exhibit List. The parties will exchange any demonstrative exhibits 24 hours before they anticipate using such demonstrative exhibits.

8. Unless otherwise noted on the Joint Exhibit List or, with respect to any document not listed on the Joint Exhibit List, when such document is used at trial, the parties stipulate and agree that: (1) all emails, letters, minutes, presentations, and memoranda produced by the parties in the litigation are records of regularly conducted activity pursuant to Rule 803(6) of the Delaware Rules of Evidence and not objectionable on hearsay grounds; and (2) all documents produced in this litigation are authentic for the purposes of admission at trial. This stipulation does not waive the right of any party to object on other grounds to the admission of a particular exhibit at trial, to note any other objection to a specific exhibit submitted to the Court, or otherwise argue as the evidentiary weight that should be provided any such exhibit.

9. Insofar as feasible, all trial exhibits are pre-marked with a JX number and the parties have indicated on the Joint Exhibit List whether they may be admitted into evidence without objection or if not, indicate the basis for any objections.

10. The parties shall prepare a flash drive or other data storage device containing the exhibits from the Joint Exhibit List and the deposition transcripts that were lodged and provide the Court with five copies of such flash drive or other data storage device, which will be delivered to the Court on or before the first day of trial: one for the Court, one for the Court's clerk, one for the Register in Chancery, one for the court reporters, and an extra copy. Additional copies of the flash drive may be provided to court reporters as necessary. Any files presented only in native format that are presented to a witness shall be entered in the record, subject to objections, in the same manner as other trial exhibits, notwithstanding their presentation as native versions. Plaintiff shall be responsible for arranging the creation of the flash drive or other data storage devices and for electronic marking/labeling of the exhibits provided to the Court, but each side shall bear 50% of the costs.

IX. WITNESS LISTS

A. Preliminaries

1. Defendants object to Plaintiff calling at trial any of the witnesses listed below for the reasons set forth in Section XII.

2. Each party has represented to the other that any witness whom such party reasonably anticipates may be called, including any rebuttal witnesses, has been identified to the opposing party in this Joint Pre-Trial Order.

3. The parties agree that, to the extent any potential party reasonably anticipates the need to call any additional witnesses, including for rebuttal, such party shall immediately notify the opposing party and shall make such witness or potential witness available for deposition prior to such testimony. Each party reserves the right to object to the introduction of any testimony from any rebuttal witness who is not identified in this Joint Pretrial Order.

B. Plaintiff's Witnesses

At this time, Plaintiff may, but is not obligated to, call the following witnesses in their case in chief:

Live Witnesses

1. Shad Stastney

Written Deposition Transcript

1. Rosco Maunder
2. Suby Joseph

Plaintiff reserves the right to (1) narrow the foregoing list of witnesses; (2) call witnesses (live or by deposition) identified by any other party; (3) call or recall any witness for rebuttal or impeachment; (4) supplement this list in order to qualify documents for admission; (5) call a witness live that is identified as testifying by deposition and vice versa; and (6) seek leave of Court to designate additional witnesses.

C. Defendants' Witnesses

At this time, Defendants may, but are not obligated to, call the following witnesses in their case in chief:

Live Witnesses

1. Mathu Rajan

Via Deposition

1. Bob Morton

Defendants reserve the right to (1) narrow the foregoing list of witnesses; (2) call witnesses (live or by deposition) identified by any other party; (3) call or recall any witness for rebuttal or impeachment; (4) supplement this list in order to qualify documents for admission; (5) call a witness live that is identified as testifying by deposition and vice versa; and (6) seek leave of Court to designate additional witnesses.

D. Presentation of Witnesses

So that witnesses do not need to be called multiple times at trial, the parties agree that each witness will be called only once, except that a party may seek leave of the Court to recall its own witness or a non-party witness for the purposes of rebuttal. For any party witness called by both parties, the witness will first be presented during the case-in-chief of the party controlling the witness. The party controlling the witness will present their direct examination of the witness, to be followed directly by the opposing party's cross-examination of such witness. In such case, the scope of such cross-examination shall not be limited to the scope of the direct examination; however, re-direct and re-cross, if any, shall be limited to the scope of the preceding examinations.

To the extent any party wants to play deposition video clips, those clips will be played during trial and the time associated with playing such clips shall be charged against the party playing the video clips.

E. Witness Order

The parties shall exchange their proposed witness order by 12:00 p.m. on March 20, 2023.

F. Deposition Designations

1. Plaintiff has filed a notice of lodging with the Court for all depositions taken in the case prior to trial.

2. Deposition testimony shall be admitted into evidence to the extent it is used at trial or cited in the parties' pre-trial briefs and, if applicable, post-trial briefs. The Parties reserve all objections with respect to the use of any deposition testimony.

3. Deposition testimony may be used for any purpose to the extent permitted by the Rules of the Court of Chancery or the Delaware Uniform Rules of Evidence, subject to each side reserving its respective rights to object to any particular testimony. The agreement regarding the use of deposition testimony shall not affect the right of any party to compel any adverse party or non-party witness to testify live at trial.

X. TRIAL LOGISTICS

1. The parties have agreed to divide trial time equally, with Plaintiff having one-half and Defendants having the other half of the calculable trial time. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, each party will be charged with all the time its counsel spends questioning a witness, whether on direct examination, cross-examination, redirect examination, or otherwise.

2. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, time spent addressing in-trial motions or evidentiary issues shall be split equally between each side. Time used by the Court or by either party addressing the Court's questions will be split equally between each side. Each party shall have the burden of monitoring its own use of time for direct and cross-examination, and all other purposes.

XI. ESTIMATED LENGTH OF TRIAL

The Court has scheduled this matter for trial for one day on March 23, 2023, commencing at 9:15 a.m.
